12 or more credits hours is considered full time. The majority of books and supplies expense will be during the first semester. Expenses and charges vary depending upon actual hours enrolled and living choices.

This does not mean that every student must pay $34,925 for nursing; $31,977 for radiology or $32,117 for respiratory care to attend St. Luke's College. Each student's course load will vary and for students who carry a course load less than 12 credits per semester may have costs lower than indicated above.

Food and Housing costs can vary. For budgeting purposes, the Financial Aid Office will base a student's food and housing costs on $11,610. This applies to students who are living off-campus.

Personal living expenses include such things as miscellaneous expenses, incidentals, entertainment, etc. Each student has different spending patterns, thus miscellaneous expenses may vary.
